Rosa Parks was a courageous woman who played a significant role in the Civil Rights Movement. Born on February 4, 1913, in Alabama, she became famous for refusing to give up her bus seat to a white man on December 1, 1955. This brave act led to the Montgomery Bus Boycott, a pivotal event in the fight against racial segregation. Rosa Parks' peaceful resistance and determination inspired many people to stand up for their rights. She was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1996 for her contributions to the cause of civil rights.
