

All About

THOMAS EDISON

CLOSE READING PASSAGES

GRADE 2-3

Name: _____

Edison Inventor

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago. He created many things that we still use today. One of his most famous inventions is the light bulb.

Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light up their homes. But Edison's light bulb made it much easier for people to see in the dark. He also invented the phonograph, which could record and play back music.

Name: _____

Thomas Edison

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago.

He created many things that we still use today, like the light bulb and the phonograph.

Name: _____

Light Bulb

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who created many things that we still use today. One of his most important inventions was the light bulb. Before Edison, people had to use candles or gas lamps to light up their homes. But Edison's light bulb made it much easier for everyone to see in the dark. It used electricity to create light and was much more convenient for everyone.

What was the light bulb?

Name: _____

Edison Ideas

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who had many bright ideas. One of his most famous inventions was the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But Edison's light bulb made it much easier for everyone to see in the dark. He also invented the phonograph, which could record and play back music.

Who was Thomas Edison?

2. What was one of Edison's most famous inventions?

Name: _____

Edison Innovations

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor known for his many innovations.

Name: _____

Famous Inventor

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago. He invented many things that we still use today. One of his most famous inventions is the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But Edison's light bulb made it much easier for people to see in the dark. He also invented the phonograph, which could record and play back music.

One of his most famous inventions was the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But with the electric light bulb, it was much easier for everyone to see in the dark. He also invented the phonograph, which could record and play back music.

NO PREP

CLOSE READING COMPREHENSIONS

Ready to Print

Name: _____

Edison Inventor

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago. He created many things that we still use today. One of his most famous inventions is the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. Edison invented a special bulb that could light up with electricity. He also invented the phonograph, which could record sound. Edison was a smart man who helped make our lives better.

1. What is one invention made by Thomas Edison?

Name: _____

Edison Ideas

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who had many bright ideas. One of his most famous inventions was the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But Edison's idea changed the way to make a bulb that could last for a long time.

Name: _____

Thomas Edison

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago. He invented many things that we use today, like the light bulb. He worked very hard to make his inventions. He never gave up, even when things were difficult. He believed that if he kept trying, he could make something out of nothing.

Name: _____

Edison Innovations

Edison was a famous inventor known for his many inventions. One of his most famous inventions was the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But with the electric light bulb, it could be brightly lit with the flip of a switch.

1. What was Thomas Edison?

2. Name one of Thomas Edison's famous inventions?

3. How did the electric light bulb change how people lit their homes?

Name: _____

Light Bulb

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who created many useful things. One of his most important inventions was the light bulb. Before the light bulb, people had to use candles or gas lamps to light up their homes. But Edison's invention changed everything. It used electricity to create light, making it safer and more convenient for everyone.

1. Who invented the light bulb?

2. What did people use before the invention of the light bulb?

3. How did Edison's light bulb improve upon previous methods of lighting?

Name: _____

Famous Inventor

Thomas Edison was a famous inventor who lived long ago. He invented many things that we still use today. One of his most famous inventions is the light bulb. Before Edison, people used candles or gas lamps to light their homes. But Edison's light bulb made it much easier for people to see in the dark. He also invented the phonograph, which could record and play back sound, like music or people's voices. Another invention of his was the motion picture camera, which led to the creation of movies. Thomas Edison's inventions have made a big impact on the world.

1. What is one invention Thomas Edison is famous for?

2. How did people light their homes before Edison's invention?

Use these passages

- CENTERS
- SMALL GROUP
- INSTRUCTIONS
- BELL RINGERS
- EARLY FINISHERS
- HOMEWORK