

All About

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

CLOSE READING PASSAGES

GRADE 2-3

Name: _____

MLK's Dream

Martin Luther King Jr. was a very important leader who fought for equal rights. He dreamed of a world where everyone would be treated equally, no matter the color of their skin.

"I Have a Dream." He spoke about a future where everyone could learn together. Dr. King wanted his dream to come true, and his

Name: _____

MLK's March

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave leader who led a big march in 1963. He wanted to show the government that it was wrong to let people be treated unfairly. He asked for

Name: _____

MLK's Speech

Martin Luther King Jr. was a famous leader who gave a very important speech called "I Have a Dream." He spoke about his dream of a world where everyone is treated equally, no matter the color of their skin.

Martin wanted everyone to live in peace and harmony. His speech was very important because it helped people understand the importance of civil rights. What was the name of the speech that Martin Luther King Jr. gave?

Name: _____

MLK's Legacy

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave leader who dreamed of a world where everyone is treated equally. He gave famous speeches and led peaceful marches to fight for civil rights. Martin wanted all

Name: _____

Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave and kind man who wanted to make the world a better place. He was born on January 15, 1929. Martin believed that everyone should be treated fairly, no matter the color of their skin. He gave famous speeches, like the "I Have a Dream" speech. He talked about his dream of people living in peace. Martin wanted people to solve problems without fighting. He showed that love and kindness can be powerful.

Name: _____

MLK's Life

Martin Luther King Jr. was a great leader who fought for civil rights. He was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia. He wanted everyone to be treated equally, no matter the color of their skin. He gave many famous speeches, and his most famous one is called "I Have a Dream." Martin worked hard to believe in peaceful protests and to help people get their rights. Sadly, he was killed in 1968, but people still remember him for a better world.

When was Martin Luther King Jr. born?

NO PREP

CLOSE READING COMPREHENSIONS

Ready to Print

Name: _____

MLK's Life

Martin Luther King Jr. was a great leader who fought for equal rights. He was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia. Martin wanted everyone to be treated fairly, no matter the color of their skin. He gave many important speeches, and his most famous was the "I Have a Dream" speech. He wanted to change unfair laws. He believed in leading many marches to help people get their rights. Martin Luther King Jr. was killed in 1968. We remember him and his dream for a better world. When was Martin Luther King Jr. born?

Name: _____

MLK's Legacy

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave leader who dreamed of a world where everyone is treated equally. He gave many famous speeches and led peaceful marches for civil rights. Martin wanted all people to be treated equally, no matter their skin color, to live together in peace. He is remembered today for his courage and peace for all. What was Martin Luther King Jr.'s dream of for the world?

Name: _____

Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave and kind man who worked hard to make the world a better place. He was born on January 15, 1929. He believed that everyone should be treated fairly, no matter the color of their skin. He gave many famous speeches, like the "I Have a Dream" speech. He talked about his dream of people living together in peace. Martin wanted people to so

Name: _____

MLK's Speech

Martin Luther King Jr. was a famous leader who gave an important speech called "I Have a Dream." He talked about his dream that all people would be treated equally, no matter the color of their skin. He wanted everyone to live together in peace and harmony. His speech helped many people understand the importance of kindness and fairness. What was the name of the important speech given by Martin Luther King Jr.?

Martin Luther King Jr.'s dream about?

Martin Luther King Jr.'s speech help people?

Name: _____

MLK's Dream

Martin Luther King Jr. was a very important leader who fought for equal rights. He dreamed of a world where everyone would be treated the same, no matter the color of their skin. Dr. King gave a famous speech called "I Have a Dream." In his speech, he talked about his dream for a future where children of all races could live and learn together. Dr. King worked hard to make his dream come true, and his ideas continue to inspire people today. What was the title of the famous speech given by Martin Luther King Jr.?

2. What did Dr. King dream of regarding children of all races?

3. How do Dr. King's ideas influence people today?

Name: _____

MLK's March

Martin Luther King Jr. was a brave leader who fought for equality. One day, he led a big march in Washington, D.C. Many people joined him to ask for equal rights. They wanted everyone to be treated fairly, no matter the color of their skin. Dr. King gave a famous speech during the march. He talked about his dream that one day everyone would live together in peace. The march was peaceful and showed the power of standing together for what is right. 1. What did Martin Luther King Jr. fight for?

2. Where did the big march led by Martin Luther King Jr. take place?

Use these passages

- CENTERS
- SMALL GROUP
- INSTRUCTIONS
- BELL RINGERS
- EARLY FINISHERS
- HOMEWORK