

All About

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE

CLOSE READING PASSAGES

GRADE 2-3

Name: _____

Indigenous People

Indigenous People are the first inhabitants of a place. They have traditions that are passed down through generations. They have a deep connection to the land and nature, and they value about respecting the land and nature.

Name: _____

Native Cultures

Indigenous peoples, also known as native cultures, are people who have lived in certain regions for many years. These cultures have their own traditions, and ways of life. They often have ceremonies and celebrations to honor their ancestors and the land they live on.

Name: _____

Indigenous Communities

Indigenous communities are groups of people who live in certain areas and share a common culture and traditions.

Name: _____

Tribal Traditions

In many Indigenous communities around the world, traditions play a significant role in their way of life. These traditions are passed down through generations and are an important part of their culture.

Name: _____

Native Lands

Native lands are areas that belong to Indigenous people. These lands are where Indigenous communities have lived for many years and are an important part of their culture and traditions.

Name: _____

Traditional Wisdom

Indigenous people have a special kind of knowledge passed down through generations. This wisdom comes from living close to nature and understanding the land. They learn from their ancestors through stories, songs, and ways of life.

Name: _____

Cultural Heritage

Indigenous people have special traditions and stories passed down through generations. These are like treasures that help them remember their past. One important part of their heritage is their language. It holds their history and identity. Another treasure is their art, which they use paintings, carvings, and other ways to share their stories.

NO PREP

CLOSE READING COMPREHENSIONS

Ready to Print

Name: _____

Native Languages

Indigenous people have special languages that they have

Name: _____

Indigenous Rights

Indigenous people have special rights that they have

Name: _____

Traditional Wisdom

Indigenous people have a special kind of knowledge that is passed down through generations.

Native Lands

Name: _____

Cultural Heritage

Indigenous people have special traditions and stories passed down through generations.

Name: _____

Tribal Traditions

In many Indigenous communities around the world, tribal traditions play a significant role in their way of life. These traditions include storytelling, dance, music, and art that have been passed down from generation to generation. Through these practices, Indigenous people preserve their culture, history, and connection to their land.

1. What are some examples of tribal traditions?
2. Why do Indigenous people continue to practice these traditions?
3. How do tribal traditions help Indigenous people preserve their culture?

Native Cultures

Name: _____

Indigenous Communities

Indigenous communities are groups of people who have lived in certain areas for a very long time. They have their own languages, traditions, and ways of life. These communities care for the land and animals around them, and pass down their knowledge from generation to generation. Many Indigenous communities have special ceremonies and celebrations to honor their heritage.

1. What are some characteristics of Indigenous communities?
2. How do Indigenous communities pass down their knowledge?
3. What are some special ceremonies or celebrations in Indigenous communities?

Name: _____

Indigenous People

Indigenous People are the first inhabitants of a place. They have unique cultures, languages, and traditions that have been passed down for generations. They often have a deep connection to the land and nature. Indigenous People teach us about respecting the Earth and all living things.

1. Who are Indigenous People?
2. What do Indigenous People have that is unique to their culture?
3. What do Indigenous People teach us about?

Use these passages

- CENTERS
- SMALL GROUP
- INSTRUCTIONS
- BELL RINGERS
- EARLY FINISHERS
- HOMEWORK