

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE

READING COMPREHENSION

NO-PREP &
EDITABLE

CULTURAL REVIVAL
In recent years, there has been a growing movement to celebrate Indigenous cultures. They are strong in their efforts to preserve their languages, traditions, and connection to the land, working towards a more inclusive and sustainable society.

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE
Indigenous peoples are the original inhabitants of a land. They have lived in harmony with nature for thousands of years, passing down traditions, stories, and customs from one generation to the next. These diverse cultures have rich histories and deep connections to the lands they call home.

DIVERSE CULTURES
Indigenous peoples come from many different cultures and backgrounds. Each tribe or community has its own unique language, traditions, and way of life. Some Indigenous peoples live in forests, others in deserts, and some near the ocean. Despite these differences, they share a strong bond with the natural world.

TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGE
Indigenous peoples possess valuable traditional knowledge about the environment and ecosystems. They have learned how to live sustainably, using natural resources wisely and respecting the balance of nature. This knowledge has been passed down through oral traditions for thousands of years.

RESPECT FOR NATURE
Respect for nature is a core value among Indigenous peoples. They believe in living in harmony with the land, water, and animals, rather than exploiting them. Many Indigenous cultures have rituals and practices to honor the Earth and its resources.

CHALLENGES AND RESILIENCE
Despite their rich cultural heritage, Indigenous peoples have faced significant challenges throughout history. European colonization brought displacement, violence, and loss of land to Indigenous communities. However, they have shown remarkable resilience in the face of adversity and are actively fighting for their rights and the preservation of their cultures.

READING COMPREHENSION
MCQ'S
QUESTIONS
ANSWER KEY

READING PASSAGES WITH TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE

Indigenous peoples are the original inhabitants of a land. They have lived in harmony with nature for thousands of years, passing down traditions, stories, and customs from one generation to the next. These diverse cultures have rich histories and deep connections to the lands they call home.

DIVERSE CULTURES

Indigenous peoples come from many different cultures and backgrounds. Each tribe or community has its own unique language, traditions, and way of life. Some Indigenous peoples live in forests, others in deserts, and some near the ocean. Despite these differences, they share a strong bond with the natural world.

TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGE

Indigenous peoples possess valuable traditional knowledge about the environment and ecosystems. They have learned how to live sustainably, using natural resources wisely and respecting the balance of nature. This knowledge has been passed down through oral traditions for thousands of years.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

Respect for nature is a core value among Indigenous peoples. They believe in living in harmony with the land and animals, rather than exploiting them for profit. Many Indigenous cultures have ceremonies and rituals to honor the Earth and give thanks for its abundance.

CHALLENGES AND RESILIENCE

Despite their rich cultural heritage, Indigenous peoples have faced many challenges throughout history. European colonization brought disease, displacement, and violence to Indigenous communities. However, Indigenous peoples have shown remarkable resilience in the face of adversity, preserving their cultures and fighting for their rights.

Ready to Print & Editable

CULTURAL REVIVAL

In recent years, there has been a growing movement to revive and celebrate Indigenous cultures. Indigenous peoples are reclaiming their languages, traditions, and identities. Through art, music, dance, and storytelling, they are sharing their cultures with the world and asserting their rightful place in society.

STANDING STRONG

Today, Indigenous peoples continue to stand strong in their efforts to protect their lands, cultures, and rights. They are advocates for environmental conservation, social justice, and Indigenous rights. By sharing their stories and perspectives, they are working towards a more inclusive and equitable world for all.

READING COMPREHENSION

COLORED & B/W VERSIONS INCLUDED

Name_____

Date_____

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE

DIRECTIONS CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. What are Indigenous peoples considered as?

- a. Recent inhabitants
- b. Original inhabitants
- c. Immigrants
- d. Tourists

2. What do Indigenous peoples share?

- a. A dislike for nature
- b. A strong bond with the natural world
- c. A desire to exploit natural resources
- d. A fear of the environment

3. How is traditional knowledge passed down among Indigenous peoples?

- a. Through written books
- b. Through oral traditions
- c. Through television shows
- d. Through online courses

4. What value do Indigenous peoples hold regarding the environment?

- a. Disrespect
- b. Indifference
- c. Exploitation
- d. Respect and harmony

5. What challenges have Indigenous peoples faced throughout history?

- a. No challenges
- b. Limited challenges
- c. Many challenges
- d. Few challenges

6. What movement has been growing among Indigenous peoples?

- a. A movement to forget their culture
- b. A movement to reclaim and celebrate
- c. A movement to abandon their language
- d. A movement to assimilate into other

7. What are Indigenous peoples reclaiming?

- a. Their dislike for nature
- b. Their languages, traditions, and identities
- c. Their desire to exploit natural resources
- d. Their fear of the environment

8. What are Indigenous peoples advocating for?

- a. Exploitation of the environment
- b. Social injustice
- c. Environmental conservation, social justice, and rights
- d. None of the above

9. How are Indigenous peoples working to create an inclusive and equitable world?

- a. By excluding others
- b. By ignoring their own cultures
- c. By sharing their stories and perspectives
- d. By isolating themselves

10. What is the ultimate goal of Indigenous peoples today?

- a. To destroy their own cultures
- b. To protect their lands, cultures, and rights
- c. To exploit the environment for profit
- d. To lose their traditional knowledge

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. What are Indigenous peoples considered as?
2. How is traditional knowledge passed down among Indigenous peoples?
3. What value do Indigenous peoples hold regarding the environment?
4. What movement has been growing among Indigenous peoples?
5. What are Indigenous peoples reclaiming?

ANSWER KEY

MCQS

1. b. Original inhabitants
2. b. A strong bond with the natural world
3. b. Through oral traditions
4. d. Respect and harmony
5. c. Many challenges
6. b. A movement to reclaim and celebrate their cultures
7. b. Their languages, traditions, and identities
8. c. Environmental conservation, social justice, and Indigenous rights
9. c. By sharing their stories and perspectives
10. b. To protect their lands, cultures, and rights

SHORT-ANSWER QUESTION

1. Original inhabitants.
2. Through oral traditions.
3. Respect and harmony.
4. A movement to reclaim and celebrate their cultures.
5. Their languages, traditions, and identities.

ANSWER KEY
INCLUDED

10 - MCQ'S & 5
QUESTIONS