

LETTER

Writing Day

READING COMPREHENSION

SENDING YOUR LETTER
Now it's time to send your letter on its way! Put a stamp in the top right corner of the envelope, and then drop it in the mailbox. Remember that the mail to reach its destination will take some time. Remember that the sender will be responsible for the letter's safe arrival.

LETTER WRITING DAY
Letters are special messages written on paper. They can be sent to friends, family, or even people we've never met! Letter Writing Day is a day to celebrate the joy of writing and sending letters to people we care about.

LETTER WRITING DAY BEGAN
Before smartphones and computers, people wrote letters to share news and feelings. They would write about their day, share news, or tell someone they were thinking of them. Letter Writing Day started as a way to remember this old tradition in our modern world.

GETTING STARTED
To write a letter, you'll need some paper, a pen or pencil, and envelopes. You can also add stickers, drawings, or colorful markers to make your letter extra special!

CHOOSING A RECIPIENT
Think about who you want to write to. It could be a friend, a family member, or even someone you admire, like a favorite author or a teacher. Whoever you choose, they're sure to be happy to receive your letter!

WRITING YOUR LETTER
Start by writing the date at the top of your paper. Then, write the name of the person you're writing to. You can say "Dear" followed by the name. Next, share what's been happening in your life and what you're doing. Don't forget to say something kind about the person you're writing to.

SENDING YOUR LETTER
Finish your letter by saying goodbye. You can write "Love" or "Sincerely" followed by your name. Then, fold your letter and put it in the envelope. Don't forget to write the recipient's address on the envelope.

LETTER WRITING
CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.
Letter Writing Day?
Celebrate technology advancement.
Remember the tradition of watching movies.
Play outdoor games.
Do you need to write a letter?
Use envelopes.
Write above.
Write a letter to?
Remember.
Write about people.
Start your letter?
Recipient's name.
Signature.
Date.

NO-PREP & EDITABLE

READING COMPREHENSION MCQ'S QUESTIONS ANSWER KEY

READING PASSAGES WITH TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

LETTER WRITING DAY

Letters are special messages written on paper. They can be sent to friends, family, or even people we've never met! Letter Writing Day is a day to celebrate the joy of writing and sending letters to people we care about.

HOW LETTER WRITING DAY BEGAN

Many years ago, before phones and computers, people wrote letters to communicate with each other. They would write about their day, share news, or simply say hello. Letter Writing Day started as a way to remember this old tradition and keep it alive in our modern world.

GETTING STARTED

To write a letter, you'll need some paper, a pen or pencil, and envelopes. You can also add stickers, drawings, or colorful markers to make your letter extra special!

CHOOSING A RECIPIENT

Think about who you want to write to. It could be a friend, a family member, or even someone you admire, like a favorite author or a teacher. Whoever you choose, they're sure to be happy to receive your letter!

WRITING YOUR LETTER

Start by writing the date at the top of your paper. Then, greet the person you're writing to. You can say "Dear" followed by their name or a special nickname. Next, share what's been happening in your life or ask how they've been doing. Don't forget to say something kind or share a fun story!

CLOSING YOUR LETTER

Finish your letter by saying goodbye. You can write "Sincerely," "Love," or "Best wishes," followed by your name. Then, fold your letter neatly and put it in the envelope. Don't forget to write the recipient's address on the front!

Ready to Print &
Editable

SENDING YOUR LETTER

Now it's time to send your letter on its way! Put a stamp in the corner of the envelope, and then drop it in the mailbox. Your letter will travel through the mail to reach its destination, and soon your friend or family member will receive a wonderful surprise!

CONCLUSION

Letter Writing Day is a special time to remember the joy of writing and receiving letters. Even in a world filled with technology, there's something magical about putting pen to paper and sending a heartfelt message to someone you care about. So grab your stationery and start writing - you never know how much happiness your letter might bring!

READING COMPREHENSION

COLORED & B/W
VERSIONS INCLUDED

Name _____

Date _____

LETTER WRITING DAY

DIRECTIONS CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. What is Letter Writing Day?

- a) A day to celebrate technology advancements
- b) A day to remember the tradition of writing letters
- c) A day to watch movies
- d) A day to play outdoor games

2. What do you need to write a letter?

- a) A computer
- b) Paper, pen, and envelopes
- c) A phone
- d) None of the above

3. Who can you write a letter to?

- a) Only family members
- b) Only friends
- c) Anyone you care about
- d) Only famous people

4. How should you start your letter?

- a) By writing the recipient's name
- b) By saying "Hello"
- c) By drawing a picture
- d) By writing the date

5. What should you include in your letter?

- a) Your favorite song lyrics
- b) A list of your chores
- c) Something kind or a fun story
- d) Your favorite movie review

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. What is Letter Writing Day?
2. What materials do you need to write a letter?
3. Who can you write a letter to?
4. How should you end your letter?
5. What should you put in the corner of your envelope?

6. How should you end your letter?

- a) By saying "Goodbye"
- b) By folding it neatly
- c) By saying "Sincerely" or "Love" followed by your name
- d) By throwing it away

7. What should you put in the corner of your envelope?

- a) A sticker
- b) A stamp
- c) A drawing
- d) A coin

8. Where does your letter go after you put it in the mailbox?

- a) It disappears
- b) It goes to a recycling bin
- c) It travels through the mail
- d) It goes to space

9. What is the main message of the passage?

- a) Letters are old-fashioned and unnecessary
- b) Writing letters can be fun and meaningful
- c) Computers are better than paper
- d) Envelopes are difficult to use

10. What is encouraged at the end of the passage?

- a) To forget about writing letters
- b) To start writing letters again and spread happiness
- c) To play video games
- d) To ignore Letter Writing Day

ANSWER KEY

MCQS

1. b) A day to remember the tradition of writing letters
2. b) Paper, pen, and envelopes
3. c) Anyone you care about
4. d) By writing the date
5. c) Something kind or a fun story
6. c) By saying "Sincerely" or "Love" followed by your name
7. b) A stamp
8. c) It travels through the mail
9. b) Writing letters can be fun and meaningful
10. b) To start writing letters again and spread happiness

SHORT-ANSWER QUESTION

1. Letter Writing Day is a day to celebrate the joy of writing and sending letters to people we care about.
2. To write a letter, you'll need some paper, a pen or pencil, and envelopes.
3. You can write a letter to anyone you care about, such as a friend, family member, or someone you admire.
4. You should end your letter by saying "Sincerely," "Love," or "Best wishes," followed by your name.
5. You should put a stamp in the corner of your envelope.

ANSWER KEY
INCLUDED

10 - MCQ'S & 5
QUESTIONS