

Patriot Day

BRAVERY

READING COMPREHENSION

NO-PREP &
EDITABLE

ACTS OF BRAVERY

Bravery is when someone shows courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations. Every year on Patriot Day, we remember and honor the acts of bravery shown by heroes during the September 11 attacks. Let's explore some of these incredible stories of bravery.

COURAGE IN CHAOS

During the September 11 attacks, many people showed remarkable courage in the face of chaos and danger. Firefighters, police officers, and paramedics rushed to the scene to help those in need. They risked their own lives to save others, showing incredible bravery and selflessness.

HEROES AMONG US

Among the heroes of September 11 were ordinary people who stepped up to help in any way they could. Some carried injured strangers to safety, while others comforted those who were scared and hurt. These everyday heroes showed that bravery comes in many forms and can be found in anyone.

RISKING EVERYTHING

Firefighters were among the bravest of the brave on September 11. They ran into the burning buildings to rescue people trapped inside, knowing the dangers they faced. Many firefighters lost their lives trying to save others, but their courage and sacrifice saved countless lives.

POLICE OFFICERS ON THE SCENE

Police officers also showed bravery on September 11. They worked to clear buildings and keep people safe. Some officers even rushed into dangerous areas to help with rescue efforts, risking their own lives.

PARAMEDICS SAVING LIVES

Paramedics were on the scene quickly after the attacks, providing medical care to the injured. They helped stabilize patients and transport them to hospitals, saving many more lives.

These heroes and remember their acts of bravery remind us of the darkest of times. As we pay tribute to the heroes of September 11, let's strive to be brave in our own lives, standing up for what is right.

Let's celebrate the strength and resilience of our heroes and honor the heroes who saved lives on September 11, 2001. Their bravery will always inspire us to be brave in what it means to be truly American.

READING COMPREHENSION

MCQ'S

QUESTIONS

ANSWER KEY

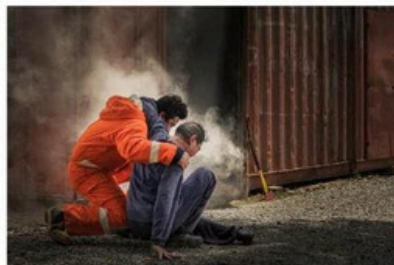

READING PASSAGES WITH TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

ACTS OF BRAVERY

Bravery is when someone shows courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations. Every year on Patriot Day, we remember and honor the acts of bravery shown by heroes during the September 11 attacks. Let's explore some of these incredible stories of bravery.

COURAGE IN CHAOS

During the September 11 attacks, many people showed remarkable courage in the face of chaos and danger. Firefighters, police officers, and paramedics rushed to the scene to help those in need. They risked their own lives to save others, showing incredible bravery and selflessness.

HEROES AMONG US

Among the heroes of September 11 were ordinary people who stepped up to help in any way they could. Some carried injured strangers to safety, while others comforted those who were scared and hurt. These everyday heroes showed that bravery comes in many forms and can be found in anyone.

RISKING EVERYTHING

Firefighters were among the bravest of the brave on September 11. They ran into the burning buildings to rescue people trapped inside, knowing the dangers they faced. Many firefighters lost their lives trying to save others, but their courage and sacrifice saved countless lives.

POLICE OFFICERS ON THE FRONT LINES

Police officers also showed incredible bravery on September 11. They worked tirelessly to evacuate buildings and keep people safe amid the chaos. Some officers even rushed into the buildings to help with rescue efforts, risking their lives to protect others.

Ready to Print &
Editable

PARAMEDICS SAVING LIVES

Paramedics were on the scene quickly after the attacks, providing medical care to the injured. They worked tirelessly to treat wounds and transport people to hospitals, even as the situation grew more dangerous. Their bravery and dedication helped save many lives that day.

REMEMBERING THEIR COURAGE

On Patriot Day, we honor the bravery of these heroes and remember their incredible acts of courage. Their selflessness and bravery remind us of the importance of helping others, even in the darkest of times. As we pay tribute to these heroes, let us also strive to be brave in our own lives, standing up for what is right and helping those in need.

CONCLUSION

Acts of bravery are a powerful reminder of the strength and resilience of the human spirit. On Patriot Day, we remember and honor the heroes who showed extraordinary courage on September 11, 2001. Their bravery will always be remembered as a shining example of what it means to be truly courageous.

READING COMPREHENSION

COLORED & B/W
VERSIONS INCLUDED

Name _____

Date _____

ACTS OF BRAVERY

DIRECTIONS CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. What is Patriot Day?

- a) A day to celebrate American independence
- b) A day to honor acts of bravery during the September 11 attacks
- c) A day for picnics and outdoor activities
- d) A day to mark the end of summer vacation

2. What is bravery?

- a) Showing fear in difficult situations
- b) Showing courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations
- c) Avoiding danger at all costs
- d) Ignoring danger

3. Who are considered heroes of the September 11 attacks?

- a) Celebrities
- b) Athletes
- c) Firefighters, police officers, paramedics, and ordinary people
- d) Politicians

4. What did firefighters do during the September 11 attacks?

- a) They ran away from the buildings
- b) They ran into the burning buildings to rescue people
- c) They stayed outside and watched
- d) They hid in their fire stations

5. How did police officers contribute during the September 11 attacks?

- a) They did nothing
- b) They worked to evacuate buildings and keep people safe

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. What is Patriot Day?
2. Define bravery according to the passage.
3. Who are considered heroes of the September 11 attacks?
4. How did firefighters contribute during the September 11 attacks?
5. Why do we remember acts of bravery?

6. What did paramedics do during the September 11 attacks?

- a) They provided medical care to the injured and transported them to hospitals
- b) They stayed away from the scene
- c) They watched the events unfold on television
- d) They took pictures

7. Why do we remember the acts of bravery during the September 11 attacks?

- a) Because they were not brave
- b) Because they showed courage and strength in difficult or dangerous situations
- c) Because they were afraid
- d) Because they were lucky

8. What does the passage say about everyday acts of bravery?

- a) They are not important
- b) They are not real heroes
- c) They showed that bravery comes in many forms and can be found in anyone
- d) They did not exist

9. How do people honor acts of bravery during the September 11 attacks?

- a) By ignoring them
- b) By celebrating them
- c) By remembering and paying tribute to the heroes who showed extraordinary courage
- d) By forgetting about them

ANSWER KEY

MCQS

1. b) A day to honor acts of bravery during the September 11 attacks
2. b) Showing courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations
3. c) Firefighters, police officers, paramedics, and ordinary people
4. b) They ran into the burning buildings to rescue people
5. b) They worked to evacuate buildings and keep people safe
6. a) They provided medical care to the injured and transported them to hospitals
7. b) Because they showed courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations
8. c) They showed that bravery comes in many forms and can be found in anyone
9. c) By remembering and paying tribute to the heroes who showed extraordinary courage
10. b) Bravery is important, and we should honor the heroes who showed extraordinary courage

SHORT-ANSWER QUESTION

1. Patriot Day is a day to honor acts of bravery during the September 11 attacks.
2. Bravery is defined as showing courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations.
3. Heroes of the September 11 attacks include firefighters, police officers, paramedics, and ordinary people.
4. Firefighters ran into the burning buildings to rescue people during the September 11 attacks.
5. Acts of bravery are remembered on Patriot Day because they show courage and strength, especially in difficult or dangerous situations.

ANSWER KEY INCLUDED

10 - MCQ'S & 5 QUESTIONS