REMEMBERING THE VICTIMS
Every year on September 11th, people come together to honor the victims of the attacks. They honor the lives of the people who risked everything to protect our country.

TRAGIC EVENTS
On September 11th, 2001, something terrible happened in the United States. It was a day that changed the country and the world forever.

THE MORNING OF 9/11
On a bright and sunny morning, people across America were going about their daily routines. But then, tragedy struck.

TERRORIST ATTACKS
That morning, terrorists hijacked airplanes and used them as weapons of destruction. They crashed two planes into the Twin Towers in New York City, one into the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and another into a field in Pennsylvania.

THE TWIN TOWERS FALL
The Twin Towers were tall buildings in New York City, standing side by side like giants reaching for the sky. When the planes struck them, the towers collapsed, causing widespread devastation and loss of life.

IMPACT ON THE NATION
The attacks of 9/11 shocked the nation and the world. Families lost loved ones, and communities were left grieving. It was a time of sadness and sorrow for everyone.

HEROES EMERGED
But amid the tragedy, heroes emerged. Firefighters, police officers, and ordinary citizens rushed to help those in need. They showed great courage and selflessness in the face of danger.

COMING TOGETHER
In the aftermath of 9/11, people from all over the world came together to support each other. The country showed kindness and compassion in the darkest of times.
