PATRIOTIC REMEMBRANCE

A SPECIAL DAY
November 11th is a special day in the United States. It is called Veterans Day, and it's a day to remember and honor all the brave men and women who served in the military. On this day, we show our appreciation for their courage and sacrifice.

HEROES AMONG US
Veterans are our heroes. They are the people who volunteered to protect our country and keep us safe. They come from all walks of life and serve in different branches of the military, like the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard.

SAYING THANK YOU
One way we honor veterans is by saying thank you. A simple "thank you for your service" means a lot to them. It shows that we appreciate all they've done to protect our freedom. Writing thank-you cards or letters is another great way to express our gratitude.

WEARING SYMBOLS OF REMEMBRANCE
On Veterans Day, many people wear symbols to remember and honor veterans. One symbol is the red poppy, which is a symbol of remembrance. It's a way to show appreciation for the veterans made for our country.

HONORING WITH CEREMONIES
In schools and cities, there are ceremonies to honor veterans. These ceremonies often include speeches, playing the national anthem, and laying wreaths at war memorials. It's a time to show their support for veterans.

LEARNING FROM HISTORY
Veterans Day is not just a day off from school or work. It's a day to learn about the history and the sacrifices that have been made for our Freedom. By studying their stories, we can understand the importance of their service.

FAMILIES
When veterans return home from serving in the military, while others may experience difficulties, it is important to support veterans and their families when needed. We should remember and honor those who have served in the military to protect our country and show our respect, not just on Veterans Day.
