DEDICATION DAY CELEBRATION
On October 28, 1886, a grand ceremony was held to dedicate the Statue of Liberty to the United States. The day was filled with parades, and a special mass was held at the base of the statue.

SYMBOL OF FREEDOM

A BEACON OF FREEDOM
The Statue of Liberty stands tall in New York Harbor, a symbol of freedom and hope for millions of people around the world. Let's learn more about this iconic monument and the special day dedicated to it.

A GIFT FROM FRANCE
The Statue of Liberty was a gift from the people of France to the United States. It was given to celebrate the friendship between the two nations. Made of copper, this majestic statue was designed by the French sculptor Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi.

A TOWERING FIGURE
Standing at a height of 305 feet, the Statue of Liberty is as tall as a 22-story building! It is made up of many pieces of copper assembled together. Over time, the copper has turned green due to weathering, giving the statue its distinctive color.

THE TORCH OF ENLIGHTENMENT
In her right hand, the Statue of Liberty proudly raises a torch, a beacon of enlightenment guiding the pursuit of freedom and democracy. This radiant symbol serves as a reminder of the essential role of knowledge and understanding in securing liberty for all. Its gleaming flame represents the power of enlightenment to dispel ignorance and inspire progress toward a just society. As it illuminates the path ahead, the torch symbolizes the pursuit of truth and the triumph of enlightenment.

A TABLET OF HISTORY
In her left hand, the statue holds a tablet inscribed with the date July 4, 1776, the day the United States declared its independence. It serves as a reminder of the principles of liberty and justice for all.
