

ALL SAINTS DAY

READING COMPREHENSION

NO-PREP &
EDITABLE

REMEMBERING LOVED ONES
For many people, All Saints' Day is a time to remember loved ones who have passed away. People might visit their graves and leave flowers or say prayers to honor them.

ALL SAINTS' DAY
All Saints' Day is a special day celebrated in many countries around the world. It falls on November 1st every year. This day is all about honoring and remembering saints, who are special people in the Christian religion.

ORIGINS OF ALL SAINTS' DAY
The tradition of All Saints' Day goes back a long time. It started way back in the early days of Christianity. The early Christians wanted to honor all the saints who didn't have their own special day. So, they chose November 1st as a day to remember them.

CELEBRATING ALL SAINTS' DAY
People celebrate All Saints' Day in different ways. Some go to church to pray and remember the saints. Others might light candles or visit cemeteries to remember loved ones who have died.

ALL SAINTS' DAY AROUND THE WORLD
All Saints' Day is celebrated in many countries, but it might not be the same everywhere. In some places, people might have parades or special church services. In other places, they might have big feasts with lots of food.

ALL SAINTS' DAY TRADITIONS
All Saints' Day is commonly associated with the color green. People might wear green or decorate their homes with green. Symbols help people remember the saints.

MELIA EARHART
AVIATION ACHIEVEMENT
CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.
Melinda Earhart earn her pilot license in 1921.
Melinda Earhart's first major flight was to cross the Atlantic Ocean. She was the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean.
Melinda Earhart fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean in 1931.
Melinda Earhart fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean in 1931.
Melinda Earhart fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean in 1931.

READING COMPREHENSION
MCQ'S
QUESTIONS
ANSWER KEY

READING PASSAGES WITH TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

Ready to Print &
Editable

ALL SAINTS' DAY

All Saints' Day is a special day celebrated in many countries around the world. It falls on November 1st each year. This day is all about honoring and remembering saints, who are special people in the Christian religion.

ORIGINS OF ALL SAINTS' DAY

The history of All Saints' Day goes back a long time. It started way back in the 4th century. The early Christians wanted to honor all the saints who didn't have their own special day. So, they chose November 1st as a day to remember them all.

CELEBRATING ALL SAINTS' DAY

People celebrate All Saints' Day in different ways. Some go to church to pray and remember the saints. Others might light candles or visit cemeteries to remember loved ones who have died.

ALL SAINTS' DAY AROUND THE WORLD

All Saints' Day is celebrated in many countries, but it might not be the same everywhere. In some places, people might have parades or special church services. In others, they might have big feasts with lots of delicious food.

SYMBOLS OF ALL SAINTS' DAY

There are several symbols commonly associated with All Saints' Day. One of the most recognizable is the halo, a circle of light often depicted above a saint's head in artwork. Additionally, people decorate their homes and churches with flowers to honor the saints. These symbols help convey the reverence and celebration of the day.

REMEMBERING LOVED ONES

For many people, All Saints' Day is a time to remember loved ones who have died. They might visit their graves and leave flowers or say prayers to honor their memory.

CONCLUSION

All Saints' Day is a special time to remember and honor saints and loved ones who have passed away. It's a day filled with love, remembrance, and celebration in many parts of the world. Whether it's through prayer, visiting cemeteries, or sharing a meal with family, people come together to honor the saints and cherish the memories of those who have gone before us.

READING COMPREHENSION

COLORED & B/W
VERSIONS INCLUDED

Name _____

Date _____

ALL SAINTS' DAY (NOVEMBER 1)

DIRECTIONS CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. When is All Saints' Day celebrated?

- A) October 31st
- B) November 1st
- C) December 25th
- D) February 14th

2. What is one way people celebrate All Saints' Day?

- A) Going to the beach
- B) Having a big party
- C) Visiting cemeteries
- D) Watching movies

3. What is a halo?

- A) A type of food
- B) A circle of light
- C) A musical instrument
- D) A type of flower

4. Why did early Christians choose November 1st for All Saints' Day?

- A) Because it was a national holiday
- B) Because it was someone's birthday
- C) To honor saints who didn't have their own special day
- D) Because it was the coldest day of the year

5. What do some people do to remember loved ones on All Saints' Day?

- A) Go to the movies
- B) Play video games
- C) Visit their graves
- D) Go shopping

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. What is the main purpose of All Saints' Day?
2. How do people typically celebrate All Saints' Day?
3. When did the history of All Saints' Day begin?
4. Name one symbol associated with All Saints' Day.
5. Why do some people visit cemeteries on All Saints' Day?

6. When are colors like red and purple seen on leaves?

- a) During spring
- b) During summer
- c) During fall
- d) During winter

7. What is the role of carotenoids in leaves?

- a) They make leaves green
- b) They make leaves red and purple
- c) They make leaves yellow and orange
- d) They help leaves grow bigger

8. What happens to sugars trapped in leaves during fall?

- a) They disappear
- b) They react with sunlight
- c) They turn into chlorophyll
- d) They turn into carotenoids

9. Why does each tree have different colored leaves?

- a) Because they have different types of leaves
- b) Because they have different amounts of chlorophyll
- c) Because they have different chemicals
- d) Because they have different shapes

10. What is the main idea of the passage?

- a) Trees lose their leaves in the fall
- b) Leaves change color because of chemicals
- c) Fall is the most beautiful season
- d) Trees change color because of magic

ANSWER KEY

MCQS

1. B) November 1st
2. C) Visiting cemeteries
3. B) A circle of light
4. C) To honor saints who didn't have their own special day
5. C) Visit their graves
6. C) Pumpkin
7. C) 4th century
8. C) Lighting candles
9. A) Celebrate
10. C) Flowers

SHORT-ANSWER QUESTION

1. To remember and honor saints and loved ones who have passed away.
2. By going to church, praying, lighting candles, and visiting cemeteries.
3. In the 4th century.
4. A halo.
5. To remember loved ones who have died and to honor their memory.

10 - MCQ'S & 5
QUESTIONS

ANSWER KEY
INCLUDED