BUNKER HILL DAY

Long ago, in the land of America, there was a big fight called the Battle of Bunker Hill. It happened during a time when the people were fighting for their freedom. Let's learn more about this important day in history.

WHAT LED TO THE BATTLE

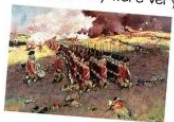

Many years ago, the people living in America were not happy with how they were being treated by the rulers from far away. They wanted to be free and make their own rules. So, they decided to stand up and fight for their rights. This led to the Battle of Bunker Hill.

THE BRAVE PATRIOTS

During the battle, there were brave people called patriots. They were farmers, teachers, and many others who loved their land and wanted to protect it. They stood strong and fought with all their might, even though they were not trained soldiers.

THE REDCOATS ARRIVE

On one side of the battle were the patriots, and on the other side were the British soldiers, also known as the Redcoats because of their bright red uniforms. They were very well trained and had big, powerful weapons.

THE FIGHT BEGINS

As the sun rose one morning, the patriots and British soldiers faced each other on Bunker Hill. The tension was high on both sides. At last, the British fired with a loud bang, the
