

Flag Day

AMERICAN FLAG

READING COMPREHENSION

FLAG ETIQUETTE
It's important to treat the American Flag with respect. This means not using it for anything other than its intended purpose. The flag should be kept off the ground, not used as a rug, and it should not be displayed in a way that is disrespectful. It's also important to know when the flag is being raised or lowered.

LEARNING ABOUT THE AMERICAN FLAG
The American Flag is a special symbol that represents the United States of America. It's made up of stars and stripes, and it holds a lot of meaning for people in the country.

DESIGN OF THE FLAG
The American Flag has a unique design with stars and stripes. The stars represent the 50 states of the United States, while the stripes represent the original 13 colonies. Each part of the flag has its own meaning.

MEANING BEHIND THE COLORS
The American Flag has three colors: red, white, and blue. Each color has a meaning. Red stands for bravery and courage, white represents purity and innocence, and blue symbolizes vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN FLAG
The American Flag has a long and interesting history. It was first created in 1776 and has been changed many times since then. Each change in the flag's design represents a significant event in the history of the United States.

BETSY ROSS AND THE FIRST AMERICAN FLAG
Legend has it that Betsy Ross, a seamstress from Philadelphia, sewed the first American Flag. George Washington, the first President of the United States, asked Betsy to create a flag for the new nation. She provided Betsy's skillful sewing and her ingenuity. While some aspects of her story are debated, Betsy Ross's contribution to the creation of the American Flag is significant.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN FLAG
The American flag is made up of stars and stripes. The stars represent the states and the stripes represent the original colonies. The flag is a symbol of the United States and its values.

CHOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER
The American flag is made up of stars and stripes. The stars represent the states and the stripes represent the original colonies. The flag is a symbol of the United States and its values.

READING COMPREHENSION MCQ'S QUESTIONS ANSWER KEY

NO-PREP & EDITABLE

READING PASSAGES WITH TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

LEARNING ABOUT THE AMERICAN FLAG

The American Flag is a special symbol that represents the United States of America. It's made up of stars and stripes, and it holds a lot of meaning for people in the country.

THE DESIGN OF THE FLAG

The American Flag has a unique design with stars and stripes. The stars represent the 50 states of the United States, while the stripes represent the original thirteen colonies. Each part of the flag has its own special significance.

THE MEANING BEHIND THE COLORS

The colors of the American flag are red, white, and blue. Each color has a special meaning. Red stands for bravery and courage, white represents purity and innocence, and blue symbolizes vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN FLAG

The American flag has a long and interesting history. It was first created in 1777, and it has changed many times since then. Each change in the flag's design tells a story about the history of the United States.

BETSY ROSS AND THE FIRST FLAG

Legend has it that Betsy Ross, a renowned seamstress, sewed the first American flag. According to the story, George Washington, the first President of the United States, asked Betsy to create the flag based on a design he provided. Betsy's skillful craftsmanship and dedication have made her a symbol of patriotism and American ingenuity. While some aspects of the story may be myth, Betsy Ross's contribution to American history remains significant.

Ready to Print & Editable

FLAG ETIQUETTE

It's important to treat the American flag with respect. This means not letting it touch the ground, not using it for anything other than its intended purpose, and folding it properly when it's not being displayed. It's also important to stand and show respect when the flag is being raised or lowered.

CONCLUSION

The American flag is more than just a piece of cloth. It's a symbol of freedom, unity, and pride for people in the United States. By learning about the flag and what it represents, we can better understand the values that make our country great.

READING COMPREHENSION

COLORED & B/W VERSIONS INCLUDED

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. Who is credited with sewing the first American flag?
2. What do the stars on the American flag represent?
3. What legend surrounds Betsy Ross and the flag?
4. What values does the American flag symbolize?
5. Why is it important to honor the American flag?

6. What is Betsy Ross known for?

- a) Being the first female president
- b) Writing the Declaration of Independence
- c) Sewing the first American flag
- d) Discovering electricity

7. What legend surrounds Betsy Ross and the flag?

- a) She invented the sewing machine
- b) She painted the flag by hand
- c) She refused to make the flag
- d) George Washington asked her to create it

8. What values does the American flag symbolize?

- a) Freedom and unity
- b) Greed and selfishness
- c) Hatred and discrimination
- d) Isolationism and division

9. What is the importance of honoring the American flag?

- a) It's a tradition passed down through generations
- b) It represents the values of the country
- c) It's fashionable to do so
- d) It's a requirement by law

10. How can individuals show respect for the American flag?

- a) By ignoring it during ceremonies
- b) By letting it touch the ground
- c) By using it for any purpose
- d) By standing and showing respect when it's present

ANSWER KEY

MCQS

1. c) Betsy Ross
2. a) Stars and stripes
3. b) The 50 states of the United States
4. d) They have special meanings like bravery and justice
5. c) George Washington
6. c) Sewing the first American flag
7. d) George Washington asked her to create it
8. a) Freedom and unity
9. b) It represents the values of the country
10. d) By standing and showing respect when it's raised or lowered

SHORT-ANSWER QUESTIONS

1. Betsy Ross is credited with sewing the first American flag.
2. The stars on the American flag represent the 50 states of the United States.
3. The legend surrounding Betsy Ross and the first American flag is that George Washington asked her to create it.
4. The American flag symbolizes values like freedom, unity, bravery, and justice.
5. It is important to honor the American flag because it represents the values of the country and the sacrifices made for freedom.

Name_____

Date_____

LEARNING ABOUT THE AMERICAN FLAG

DIRECTIONS: CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. Who is credited with sewing the first American flag?

- a) George Washington
- b) Thomas Jefferson
- c) Betsy Ross
- d) Abraham Lincoln

2. What is the American flag made up of?

- a) Stars and stripes
- b) Circles and squares
- c) Triangles and diamonds
- d) Hearts and moons

3. What do the stars on the American flag represent?

- a) The original thirteen colonies
- b) The 50 states of the United States
- c) The branches of government
- d) The rivers of the country

4. What is the significance of the colors on the American flag?

- a) They represent different seasons
- b) They symbolize different animals
- c) They stand for various emotions
- d) They have special meanings like bravery and justice

5. Who is said to have asked Betsy Ross to make the first American flag?

- a) Benjamin Franklin
- b) Thomas Jefferson
- c) George Washington
- d) John Adams

ANSWER KEY
INCLUDED

10 - MCQ'S & 5
QUESTIONS

READY TO PRINT

NO-PREP !

JUST PRINT AND GO!

EASY EDITING

EDITABLE

FONTS ARE EMBEDDED FOR CONVENIENCE

