HONORING VETERANS

Veterans are brave and strong people who have served our country with courage and dedication. We can show our appreciation and support for them in many ways, not just on Veterans Day, but throughout the whole year.

One way to honor veterans is by saying "thank you" to them when we meet them. We can also make special cards or write letters to show our gratitude and send them to the veterans or to the local veterans' hospital. This can make them feel happy and proud of their service to the country.

Another way to show support is by participating in parades and events held in their honor. We can wave flags and cheer for them as they march past us. This shows that we are proud of their bravery and that we appreciate all they have done for us.
