WEST VIRGINIA DAY

Every year, on June 20th, people in West Virginia celebrate a special day called "West Virginia Day." It's a time when everyone in the state comes together to honor the place they call home.

STATE'S BIRTHDAY

West Virginia Day is like a birthday party for our state! On this day in 1863, West Virginia officially became a state in the United States of America. That's more than 150 years ago!

HISTORY LESSON

Before West Virginia became a state, it was part of another state called Virginia. But people in the western part of Virginia felt different from the people in the eastern part. They wanted to be their own state where they could make their own rules and decisions.

STATE SYMBOLS

Just like people have special things that represent them, states have symbols too. West Virginia has its own state bird, flower, and animal. The state bird is the cardinal, the state flower is the rhododendron, and the state animal is the black bear.

CELEBRATIONS

On West Virginia Day, there are lots of fun things to do! People might have picnics in the park, go to parades, or watch fireworks at night. Some towns even have special concerts or festivals to celebrate.

LEARNING ABOUT OUR STATE

West Virginia Day is also a great time to learn more about our state's history and famous people who lived here. Did you know that the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean solo was from West Virginia? Her name was Amelia Earhart!
