

NATIVE AMERICAN BIOGRAPHY

PowerPoint

EDITABLE

Name: _____

What tribe was Wilma Mankiller associated with?

- a) Navajo
- b) Apache
- c) Cherokee Nation
- d) Sioux

Exatubade state is the primary residence of the Cherokee

- a) Arizona
- b) North Carolina
- c) Oklahoma
- d) South Dakota

When was Wilma Mankiller born?

- a) June 4, 1950
- b) November 16, 1945
- c) March 27, 1957
- d) December 20, 1958

According to the passage, what was Wilma Mankiller's passion regarding her role in the Cherokee Nation?

- a) Self-promotion
- b) Serving the people
- c) Unity with other tribes
- d) Preserving her legacy

Open-Ended Questions:

What do you think Wilma Mankiller meant by "We're not promoting ourselves. We're here to serve?"

Wilma Mankille

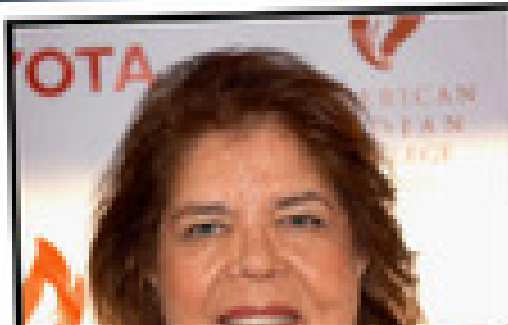

"The secret of our success is that we never give up."

Wilma Mankille

Wilma Mankille

a Mankille

born 1945

died April 9, 2010

association: Wilma Mankiller was a Cherokee Nation, one of the largest own Native American tribes.

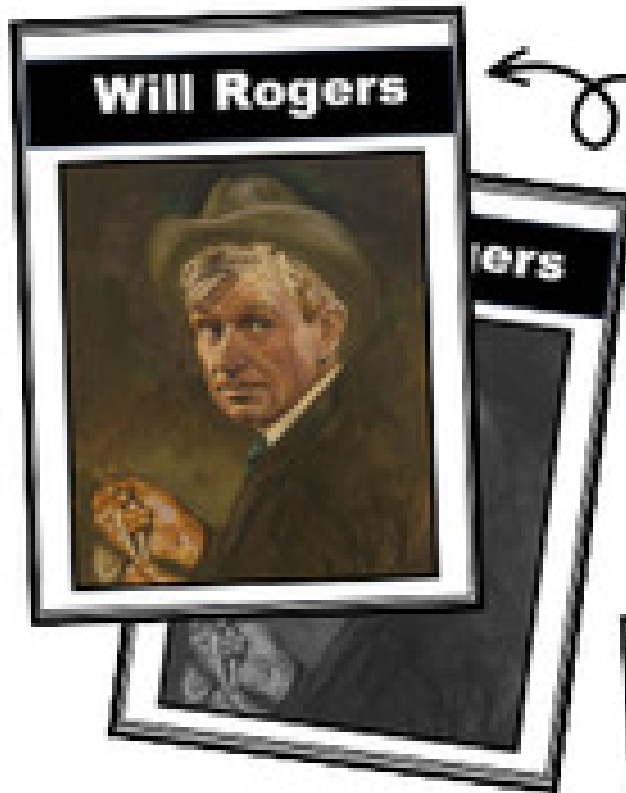

as a remarkable leader and Cherokee Nation. Born on November one of Oklahoma, she was a proud Cherokee Nation. Wilma Mankiller's passion of serving the people, as the Cherokee Nation one here to We're not here to promote one to serve." Her dedication to

WILMA MANKILLE

EASY EDITING & NO-PREP

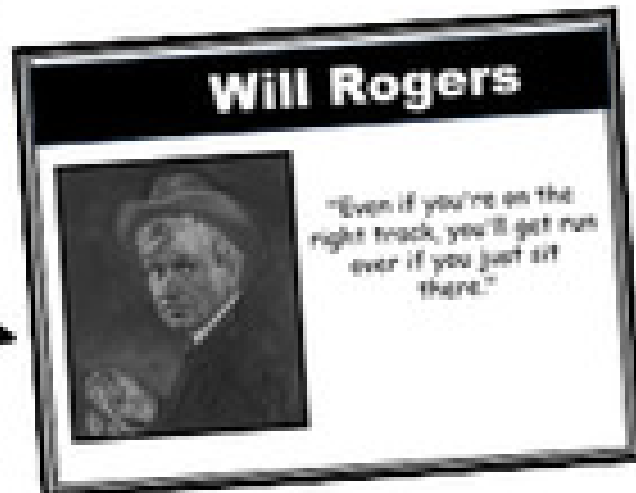

Google Slides

POSTER IMAGE

COLORED/BLACK & WHITE

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE

COMPREHENSION

DATE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

ASSOCIATED TRIBE

READING PASSAGE

Wilma Mankille

Date of Birth: November 18, 1945

Date: April 6, 2010

Tribe of Origin/Association: Wilma Mankille was a member of the Cherokee Nation, one of the largest and most well-known Native American tribes.

Wilma Mankille was a remarkable leader and advocate for the Cherokee Nation. Born on November 18, 1945, in the state of Oklahoma, she was a proud member of the Cherokee Nation. Wilma Mankille believed in the importance of serving the people, as she once said, "We the Cherokee Nation are here to serve the people. We're not here to promote ourselves. We're here to serve." Her dedication to her tribe and her people made her a respected and influential figure.

Mankille's legacy is marked by her commitment to improving the lives of the Cherokee people and promoting understanding and unity among Native American communities. She continued to be an inspiration to many long after her passing on April 6, 2010.

MCQ'S

QUESTIONS

Form with multiple-choice questions (MCQ's) and open-ended questions related to the reading passage about Wilma Mankille.

MCQ's

1. When was Wilma Mankille born?
a) 1945
b) 1946
c) 1947
d) 1948

2. Which tribe was Wilma Mankille associated with?
a) Cherokee
b) Navajo
c) Hopi
d) Zuni

3. Which state was the primary residence of the Cherokee Nation today?
a) Georgia
b) North Carolina
c) Oklahoma
d) South Carolina

4. When did Wilma Mankille pass away?
a) June 4, 2010
b) November 18, 2010
c) March 12, 2011
d) October 31, 2011

Open-Ended Questions

5. According to the passage, what was Wilma Mankille's philosophy regarding her role in the Cherokee Nation?
a) Promoting herself
b) Serving the people
c) Being a role model
d) Promoting her tribe

6. What do you think Wilma Mankille meant by "We're not here to promote ourselves. We're here to serve?"
a) She was not interested in promoting herself.
b) She was not interested in promoting her tribe.
c) She was not interested in promoting her community.
d) She was not interested in promoting her nation.

7. How do Wilma Mankille's leadership and advocacy impact the Cherokee Nation and the broader Native American community?
a) She inspired many people to serve the community.
b) She inspired many people to promote themselves.
c) She inspired many people to promote their tribe.
d) She inspired many people to promote their nation.