"We've been defined by everyone else and continue to be shattered despite why we look up on the internet books about the realities of our histories and current state as a people. ...
Something to the effect of,
"those we look at the past, the ones who are gone, the ones who are going, we're not looking at the past. We're not looking back.
We're looking at right now.
We're in it."
