

NATIVE AMERICAN

BIOGRAPHY

PowerPoint

EDITABLE

N. Scott Momaday

"This is what we imagine
Our very existence
consists in our
imagination of ourselves.
Our best destiny is incomplete."

N. Scott Momaday

State:

When is N. Scott Momaday born in?

- a) Professional basketball player
- b) Award-winning author
- c) Awarded PBA
- d) Big musician

Which tribe does N. Scott Momaday belong to?

- a) Menominee
- b) Kiowa
- c) Sioux
- d) Cherokee

In which state can you primarily find the Kiowa tribe's ancestral lands?

- a) New York
- b) Arizona
- c) Oklahoma
- d) California

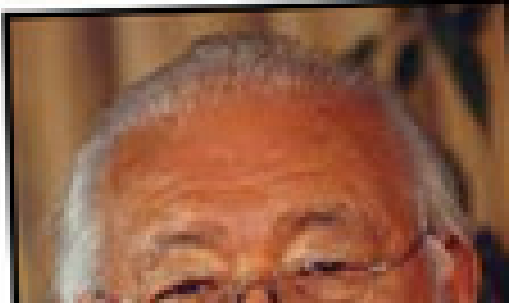

What major literary award did N. Scott Momaday win for "The Way to Rainy Mountain"?

- a) Nobel Prize
- b) Pulitzer Prize
- c) Booker Prize
- d) Academy Award

Questions for Writing

How has N. Scott Momaday's writing contributed to greater American culture and heritage?

N. Scott Momaday

N. Scott Momaday

February 27, 1934.

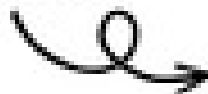

association. He is a member of the Kiowa people, which are primarily located in the modern-day state of Oklahoma. The ancestral lands are located in Oklahoma.

N. Scott Momaday, born on February 27, 1934, is a prominent Native American author. He is a member of the Kiowa tribe, which has its roots in Oklahoma. Momaday is known for his rich and beautifully written works that explore the history and culture of his people.

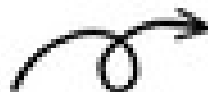

N. SCOTT MOMADAY

COMPREHENSION

DATE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

ASSOCIATED TRIBE

N. Scott Momaday

Born on February 27, 1934.

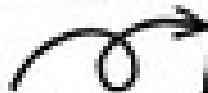

Tribe of Origin/Association: He is a member of the Kiowa tribe. The Kiowa people are primarily associated with the modern-day state of Oklahoma, where their ancestral lands are located.

N. Scott Momaday, born on February 27, 1934, is a highly regarded Native American author. He belongs to the Kiowa tribe, which has its roots in the state of Oklahoma. Momaday is known for his powerful writing that beautifully explores the Native American experience and culture. He has won numerous awards, including the Pulitzer Prize for his novel "House Made of Dawn." His work not only enriched literature but also helped preserve and celebrate the heritage of the Kiowa people.

READING PASSAGE

MCQ'S

QUESTIONS

Worksheet with multiple-choice questions and open-ended questions related to the reading passage about N. Scott Momaday.

Multiple Choice Questions:

- 1. When was N. Scott Momaday born?
a) 1934
b) 1935
c) 1936
d) 1937
- 2. Which state is primarily associated with the Kiowa tribe's ancestral lands?
a) Texas
b) Oklahoma
c) Kansas
d) Colorado
- 3. What award did N. Scott Momaday win for his novel "House Made of Dawn"?
a) Nobel Prize
b) Pulitzer Prize
c) Booker Prize
d) Man Booker Prize
- 4. What is the main purpose of the reading passage?
a) To describe the Kiowa tribe's culture and heritage.
b) To discuss the author's life and career.
c) To explore the author's writing style.
d) To compare the author's work to other Native American authors.

Open-ended Questions:

5. How does N. Scott Momaday's writing contribute to the preservation of Native American culture and heritage?

6. Why is it important to recognize and celebrate the contributions of Native American authors like N. Scott Momaday to the world of literature?

7. If you were to interview N. Scott Momaday, what questions would you ask about his life and work as a writer and his connection to the Kiowa people?

EASY EDITING & NO-PREP

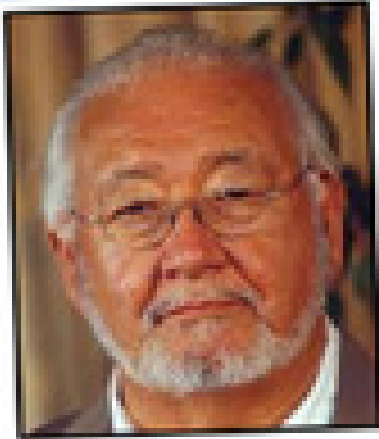

PDF

Google Slides

N. Scott Momaday

momaday

POSTER IMAGE

COLORED/BLACK & WHITE

N. Scott Momaday

"We are what we imagine.
Our very existence
consists in our
imagination of ourselves.
Our best destiny is to imagine, at least,
completely, who and what,
and that we are. The greatest tragedy that can befall us is to go unimagined."

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE