

PI DAY FLIP BOOK

Activity

LETS LEARN ABOUT...

PI DAY

READ

ANSWER

SORT IT OUT

WHAT I LEARNED

Ready to Print

Pi Day is celebrated on March 14th, because the date looks like the number Pi (3.14). It's a day to enjoy and learn more about math, especially the special number Pi, which is used to calculate the circumference of circles. People celebrate by eating pie, doing math puzzles, and having fun with math-related activities. It's a great day to see how cool and useful math can be!

READ

What

WHAT I LEARNED

1. When is Pi Day celebrated?

2. Why do people eat pie on Pi Day?

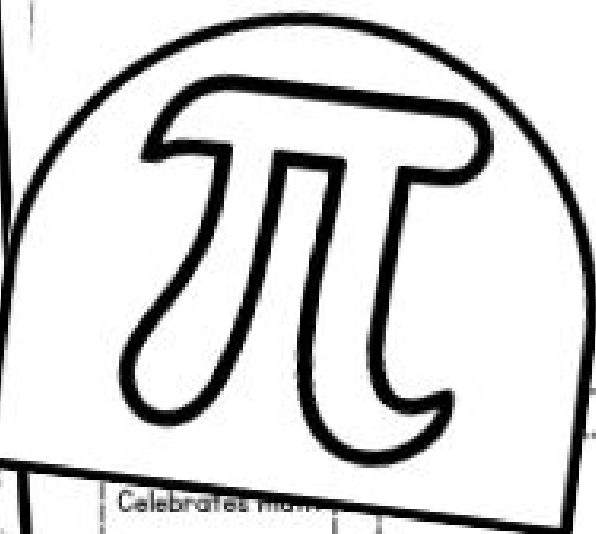

3. What does Pi help calculate?

ANSWER

Cut & Paste Activity

TOPPER

CUT AND PASTE BEHIND LAST PAGE

FACT

OPINION

SORT IT OUT

Celebrates math

Eats pie

Makes math interesting

About number Pi

Great for math lovers