MALALA YOUSAFZAI
She is known for being an activist. Malala became famous for her advocacy for girls' education, especially in her native Swat Valley in Pakistan, where the Taliban had banned girls from attending school. She became the youngest person to win the Nobel Peace Prize for her courageous efforts to promote education for all children.

COCO CHANEL
Coco Chanel was born in France in 1883. She was a fashion designer. Coco Chanel revolutionized the fashion industry with her elegant and practical designs, introducing timeless classics such as the little black dress and the Chanel suit. Through her innovative approach to fashion, Coco Chanel empowered women by providing them with comfortable and stylish clothing options that departed from the restrictive and elaborate fashions of the time.

AUDREY HEPBURN
Audrey Hepburn was born in Belgium in 1929. She was an actress and humanitarian. Audrey Hepburn is renowned for her iconic performances in classic films such as "Breakfast at Tiffany's" and "Roman Holiday." Beyond an acting career, she dedicated much of her life to humanitarian work, serving as a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador and advocating for children's rights.

RUTH BADER GINSBURG
Ruth Bader Ginsburg was born in New York in 1933. She was a lawyer, judge, and Supreme Court Justice. Ruth Bader Ginsburg pioneered equality and women's rights through her career. She was the first woman to serve on the Supreme Court of the United States in 1993, becoming the second woman to do so in the nation's history. She is known for her dissenting opinions and her role in advancing gender equality through her work as a lawyer, educator, and activist.

ANNE FRANK
Anne Frank was born in Germany in 1929. She was a writer and diarist. Anne Frank is known for her diary, "The Diary of a Young Girl," which she wrote while she and her family were in hiding during the Holocaust. Her diary has become a powerful symbol of hope and resilience in the face of adversity.

MAE JEMISON
Mae Jemison was born in the United States in 1950. She is an astronaut, physician, and engineer. Mae Jemison was the first African American woman to travel in space, launching the STS-47 mission on the Space Shuttle Columbia in 1992. She has a background in medicine and engineering, and she has been a vocal advocate for diversity in STEM fields.

MARGARET THATCHER
Margaret Thatcher was born in the United Kingdom in 1925. She was a politician and served as the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1979 to 1990. Margaret Thatcher was known for her strong leadership and her role in the Falklands War. She is often referred to as the "Iron Lady" for her uncompromising stance on issues.
